Ethelbert

Check out The Ogden Standard-Examiner from December 1931 for more information and pictures. According to the weight cited in the article the calf must have been about two years old. Poor Ethelbert probably got separated from his family and didn't have much chance anyway.

Special thanks to Ernie Fink who let me know of Ethelbert!